

Hampshire Constabulary Gifts and Gratuities Register July - September 2015

| Date of Receipt | Recipient                 | Nature of gift/hospitality | Donor details                                                             | Accepted / Declined | Disposal | Full circumstances                                                                                                                                       |
|-----------------|---------------------------|----------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------|----------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 07/2015         | Chief Constable           | Bottle of rum              | Governors & Police Commissioner of British Caribbean Overseas Territories | Accepted            | Donated  | Chief Constable was given a bottle of Mount Gay Barbados Rum and would like to donate it towards Families Day Raffle.                                    |
| 08/2015         | Assistant Chief Constable | Bottle of wine             | President of Neighbourhood Watch                                          | Accepted            | Accepted | President of Neighbourhood Watch gave Mr Pryde a bottle of wine as a thank you for the work he did with around NW initiatives and for the support given. |
| 08/2015         | Chief Constable           | Tickets                    | Royal Marines School of Music                                             | Accepted            | Accepted | Chief Constable has received two tickets for Music Graduation Concert and Beating Retreat.                                                               |
| 09/2015         | Assistant Chief Constable | Cocktail party             | Commandant, Army Aviation                                                 | Accepted            | Attended | Mr Pryde represented the Chief at a cocktail party hosted at Army Aviation Centre in Middle Wallop.                                                      |
| 09/2015         | Chief Constable           | Invitation                 | Vice Chancellor, Southampton University                                   | Accepted            | Attended | Invitation for Chief Constable to attend the Vice Chancellor's valedictory address and gala dinner at Southampton University.                            |