Please note: In respect of cautions for sexual offences, the cases were reviewed by CPS and a caution was considered more appropriate. There may have been factors in such cases – such as mental health for the subject - that made such matters, whilst serious, not in the public interest to deal with in court.

In addition, the not stated offences are those which are not defined by any of the Home Office classifications and relate to offences from drunk & disorderly to breach of bail/ orders etc.
